Following this will come the big spectacular event of the evening. Fifty of the Blues and Society girls will form the Blues cotillon, led by John Cutchins, with Charles H. Harrison as the partner. Harrison as leading couple. The following men and girls will take part:

ONE MOTHER-IN-LAW WITH FIVE DAUGHTERS-IN-LAW

Delegates to Women's Missionary Council Hear of Actual Occurrence in Shanghai, China.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., April 17.—One mother-in-law actually living in peace and contentment with her five daughters-in-law, the Rev. Ed. E. Cook told delegates at the Women's Missionary Council of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in convention here to-day, discussing economic and social conditions in Shanghai, China.

This, the minister declared, would be impossible in America, and gave him greater admiration for the strength and beauty in the Chinese social order. Other speakers at to-day's session included the Rev. S. D. Gordon, of New York. Dr. Gordon took occasion to emphasize the value of affirmative goodness in the world, contrasted with actions directed against specific evil. The speaker declared that the greatest good came through the greatest spread of learning, and that without knowledge there can be no effective work against vice.

Consecration of candidates for recognition as missionaries and deaconesses who have been accepted will be made at the service on Monday night.

RACIAL DISTURBANCE IN THEATER AT BOSTON

Four Negroes and White Arrested on Charge of Disturbing Peace—Reconstruction Film Shown.

BOSTON, April 17.—A racial disturbance which developed to-night in the lobby of the Tremont Theater, where a motion-picture play dealing with the Reconstruction period in the South was presented, resulted in the arrest of William Munro Trotter, secretary of the National Equal Rights League; Aaron W. Puller, pastor of the People's Baptist Church, two other negroes and a white man.

Trotter, who is charged with disturbing the peace, claims he was struck in the face by a policeman. Puller was arrested on the same charge. Trotter said he had decided to go to the theater to-night after receiving a letter from Mayor Curley to the effect that the producers of the play had made changes in the film at the request of persons who sympathized with objections made by negroes who had seen the exhibition.

The trouble followed the alleged refusal of the theater to sell tickets to Trotter. The explanation given by the management was that the house was sold out.

Disorders had been anticipated by the police, and more than 100 reserves were near the theater at the opening hour. During the disturbance in the theater lobby and for a long time afterward hundreds of negroes walked up and down Tremont Street, between files of police reserves, or clustered on Boston Common until dispersed.

Trotter came into prominence recently when he headed a committee of negroes who called upon President Wilson to protest against segregation of department employees at Washington.

J. E. Walton, twenty-five years old, was arrested last night on a charge of interfering with Misses V. H. and Louise Land. The young women were annoyed on Broad Street, and reported the matter to Officer Crafton, who immediately followed the man and placed him under arrest.

Reports Automobile Stolen.

Dr. Rosenboro reported to the police last night that an automobile belonging to him was stolen from in front of 29th Monument Avenue. This is the third stolen automobile reported in as many nights, and Major Werner has cautioned the whole force to pay special attention to standing machines.
